Not Over.

The Republicans are already getting in line for an onslaught on he county offices next year and the woods are full of candidates.

It has never occurred to some of them that the Republican majority was almost wiped outne cases in 1897 and that it may be completely effaced in law, with an honest election law to aid the Dem-

If the Democrats had been given a fair deal in 1897 they would have elected at least a part of their county ticket. Under the present law County Judge Jas. P. Gregory is they are assured of an equal showing and the Republican candidates

It is worthy of note that the 'up against it" in their own party. County Judge Polk Cansler is to have it over again with John Feland for the nomination. These two Damon and Pythias and some of their mutual friends, it is said, will try to get both of them to stand aside and let Will Fowler have the shave before, with the officers packed Cansler-Feland political feud is recognized as a very dangerous thing to carry in a county election.

County Attorney Otho Anderson was nominated because the gang didn't have a man strong enough to cope with him. This time they think they have the real article, in Deputy United States Marshal L. Yonts. Unless Youts is kept too busy indicting Democrats and paying fines he will probably be given the pleasant task of chewing the neck of the young man who bids fair to attain too much prominence in the party to suit the bosses. But it is rumored that Otho will object to his neck being "chawed", and there you are.

They do say that County Attorney Prowse has already had his measure taken by Claud Clark, the hustling grocer. Mr. Clark is an avowed candidate and his friends claim that he will win just as easy as tained a number of her friends falling off a log. Mr. Prowse, Tuesday evening at the home of her though, has been a wheelhorse in parents on North Liberty, it being his day and as he is entirely satisher tourteenth birthday. Elegant fied with the job he has had for ten years, and which he got the first time by a single vote, he will doubtless put up a fight the sight of which will be worth the entire price of admission.

As Sheriff Barnes is not eligible Moss will regret to hear of his for re-election, that race will be a serious illness. He is now at the free for all. The entries so far are home of Mr. Jesse Giles, near H. H. Golay, Mc J. Davis, W. R. Howell. It is not thought that he Long and Jailer W. T. Williamson, of Hopkinsville; David Bowles and L. R.
